SPACE PLANET MISSION: LAY'S TASK

Lay stepped out of her ship and gave Skorler a high five. "Space five!" they shouted. They got on their hands and knees and walked around in circle.

Sargent Dominic entered the FuelGarageChamber. "Get up!" He screamed and clapped and then dumped his planet buckets which were full of planetary liquids.

The planetary garage which held the space ships was super large and it was super dirty so needed a ton of cleaning. Lay got excited and grabbed a mop, then began spreading around the planetary fluid.

"Dude... quit" Sargent Dominic lit up a cigarette and leaned on a large wooden crate full of space eggs which were now hatching into small freaking dinosaurs.

"You're gonna just spread all the planetary fluids around... Skorler, think fast!" Dominic threw a large alien space gorb at Skorler.

Skorler pumped. Lay continued spreading the planetary fluid.

Sargent Dominic laughed. "I told you to quit spreading that... so QUIT!" He continued laughing as he mimic Lay's strange mopping technique. This made Skorler laugh super hard. Then Lays also laughed so they were all laughing.

A red alert style alarm went off and security flooded into the FuelGarageChamber. The head of the space security on the mothership, which is where they have been the whole time, screamed over a megaphone at Sargent Dominic. "ARE YOU OK? WE DETECTED AN INTRUDER

ON DECK EIGHT, HERE IN THE FUELGARAGECHAMBER!"

Sargent Dominic pointed at Lay who was still mopping the planetary fluids. "Do it look like we got an invasion force goin' on here?!" Skorb couldn't contain her laughter. The head of security blushed.

"Bye!" the security master who was head of security darted off towards the restroom, and began using the space toilet immediately which caused his security employees AKA individuals who where also security gaurds but worked under him, to applaud. They all ran out of the garage.

"All in a days work huh Skorb?" Sargent Dominic sat down on the crate nearby which now contained fully hatched dinosaur babies.

Lay finally stopped mopping the planetary fluid. "Huh? What did I miss?" Lay was now blushing alot and really embarrassing having missed the entire security fiasco LOL.

Skorb piped up and started to dance. "Its ok. We loved the mop tricks!"

Sargent Dominic popped up and got serious. "Ok gang. Lets start the mission." He entered a small three person spaceblaster's ship. "You gettin' in or what?!" he yelled at the other two who quickly jumped in. They took off out of the garage and went really fast into space.

Realmer's Reason: Pumper's Purpose

When I wake up, I pump open my eyes,
I pump myself up, and what a surprise,
The shower pumps fast, in a water style,
And I pump my breakfast, for a while.

With classical swagger, and Realmer steeze,
We pump it hardcore, oh, it's such a breeze,
We enjoy busting, then we pump some more,
Pump for all time, from the days of yore.

Babies pump out thick their dirty-style poo,
And kids pump for fun, enjoy play time too,
Adults pump for wads, pump too much to match,
Elder Pumpers pump – and there is no catch!

Every Realmer knows, we don't pump to bust,
We're busting to pump, which is right and just.

Mechanisms in a mechanised gorb,
Oh, they pump non-stop, while I clean my orb.

Realmer's in Georgia, and Realmer's abroad,
Realmer's who clap, and those who applaud,
Whitenames and ballers, all paters a'swell,
Together let us pump a hater-busting spell.

With gorbacious pumps, the power inside,
I summon the gorbulation, ancient style, I cried:
“GO! Dormations GO! Dormations GO!
Hear this! Dormations GO! Horses GO!”

One, two, and three times, three times I do say,
The summons of it, Ancient Sphimmer “Yay!”,
Nasty, nasty, nasty, I say three times.
Go, go, go, GO! Horses! Go! Mystic rhymes.

Our spells become one, with great guile,
We have achieved the ancient magic style,
Now with the countdown, down from three,
That magic style, gone it will be,
Three, two, one, begone magic style,
Now, now, NOW! Realmer's may smile.

The Dormations have gone, pumped far away,
The haters are busted, the price they did pay,
Because we pumped hard, off they did jump,
Nothing can stop us, and that's why we PUMP.

A Realmer's ramblings and Pumper's poem, by Gandalf the Black

You guys truly make my week, EVERY WEEK! Theres nothing else I would rather do on a Wednesday night than watch SRL go live. Watching the show and community morph and change over the last year has been a wild ride.
I want nothing but the best for all of you.

I will never forget the mark that SRL has made on myself and my friendgroup. No amount of thanks will ever
